Slow Train

Brian Dunne

Honey I'm so tired
I just want to ride easy on a slow train
I ain't got a nickel
Honey, I ain't got a dime
But it's okay
I'm just tired of the liquor
And the tremble in my fingers
And the cocaine
Honey I'm so tired
And I wanna ride easy on a slow train
Oh yea

My love, do you feel me?
This wasn't how I really saw it turning out
But everywhere I turn
A dream that used to burn
Is always burning out
I can't hear another question
Or learn another lesson for the ones that I've learned always turned out less than I asked
Baby I'm sinking down fast

Honey I'm so tired
I just want to ride easy on a slow train
I ain't got a nickel
Honey, I ain't got a dime
But it's okay
I'm just tired of the liquor
And the tremble in my fingers
And the cocaine
Honey I'm so tired
And I wanna ride easy on a slow train
Oh yea

Well what happened to the innoccence
Ah swear it was just right here
But now I don't know where it went

My love do you hear me
You're lying right near me
But you're so far gone

And I'm so far from home
And I don't know where we're going
Down the road we're on
I've known people at the bottom going straight to the top
I've known people that were lucky
But I am not
But no
I guess it's not who I am

Honey I'm so tired
I ain't got a nickel
And the tremble in my fingers
Honey I'm so tired
Oh yea
Mmmmhmmm
Oh yea
