

Just Looking For Him

Reba McEntire

She can concentrate on workin'
Until her work is done
She can hold a conversation
As well as anyoneShe'll fool you with sincerity
And if you didn't know her well
You would never see it
You could never tellShe's just lookin' for him
She's only rememberin'
She might look like she's ready
To fall in love again
But she's just lookin' for himShe keeps one eye on the road
And one on the other lane
Lookin' for his car
His memory is replayedShe searches other faces
Tryin' to find that spark
But no one new can reach her
Or fill her hollow heartShe's just lookin' for him
She's only rememberin'
She might look like she's ready
To fall in love again
But she's just lookin' for himOh, you'd better keep your distance
Don't let her reel you in
She's not quite herself now
How could she be whenShe's just lookin' for him
She's only rememberin'
She might look like she's ready
To fall in love again
But she's just lookin'Oh, she's really just lookin'
She's just lookin'
