Lady Jane

Eric Lindell

Sometime I love you more
And sometime I love you less
But you know that I do enjoy ya
But you know I love you bestI must admit it's kinda strange
To have my Mary, Mary JaneSometime you bring me down
'Cause you know you can run me around
Honey, sometime you get me high
But you know that I let it ride, I let it rollI must admit it's kinda strange
Without my Mary, Mary Jane
Something quick has got to change
I can barely stand the painSometime I love you more
Sometime I love you less
But you know that I do adore you
But you know that I love you bestAnd I must confess
I must admit it's kinda strange
About my Mary, Mary Jane
Something quick has got to change
I can barely stand the painGirl, I must admit it's kinda strange
Without my Mary, Mary Jane
Something quick has got to change
I can barely stand the pain
