(Mike Will Made It) I promise I wont play second fiddle
And no I wont be caught in the middle no
Don't worry about me, 'cause boy I'm not gon' miss you
Not even a little baby no I won't
I'm not gon' deal with that a little bit of that Hell no not me baby that's a fact, not at all, oh
I ain't gon' lie baby thats so wack
How you gon' try play me like that
When you know that I love you
So I hope that she, can keep you warm yeahIf I'm not the one,
Then I guess you can number two, two, two
If I'm not the one
Then I guess I won't be lovin' you, you, you,
'Cause I gotta be the only one, the only one, the only one, the only one
Your number one, number one, your number one
If I'm not the one,
Then I guess you can call number two, two
And I guess I won't be lovin' youI don't care, I don't share, no no not with anyone
Hear me clear, when I say I'll only be number one
And no I won't ever ever ever settle
No compromise, not even a little oh
See having another woman laid up in bed
Isn't the idea of us, that I had in my head
Since it ain't me and you, then it cant be you and me
Only time will tell, Ima let you see
So I hope that she can keep you warmIf I'm not the one,
Then I guess you can number two (two), two (two), two (two)
If I'm not the one
Then I guess I won't be lovin' you, you, you,
'Cause I gotta be the only one, the only one, the only one, the only one
Your number one, number one, your number one
(Baby) If I'm not the one,

Then I guess you can call number two, two
And I guess I won't be lovin' you Anything you want
You know I would have did it, baby you believe me (but you still)
 Played my a deck of cards
 And now I can't forgive you
 Baby this is so true If I'm not the one,
Then I guess you can call number two (you can call her) two, two (but it won't be me)
 If I'm not the one (not the one)
 Then I guess I won't be lovin' you, you, you,
'Cause I gotta be the only one, the only one, the only one, the only one
 Your number one, number one, your number one
 If I'm not the one,
 Then I guess you can call number two, two
And I guess I won't be lovin' you (Mike Will Made It) Only lovin' you
