Yesterday's Shadows

Allison Forbes

Yesterdays shadows Allison Forbes

Hollow out my heavy heart wind whips the pages to and fro Steal the gold when we needed it most make the rules up as you go

chorus
Out in the rain I say goodbye and we spin the gravel under the tyres
Yesterday was shadows today is sorrow
tomorrow is ashes and fire

Bones grind down in our knees when we try to fall at your feet You can borrow your angels but send him right back to me

chorus
You have let a ship or two go down let me in or Iâ€™m getting him out Just one drink and take something to sleep careful itâ€™s not more than I need

chorus2
You leave music behind
and we spin the gravel under the tyres
Yesterday was shadows today is sorrow
