

Tell Me a Secret (Prod. by Swizz Beatz)

Ludacris

I got five kisses where you want 'em at
Either one on your lips,
Your ear, your neck, your stomach, or your back.
Your inner thigh, right on your knee cap or your belly button.
These other guys be out here talkin' but they steady frontin',
They don't know what they want that's why I tell you put your trust in me.
Share all your secrets, all your desires and your fantasies.
I ain't gon' tell nobody, baby I'm an only child.
I'd keep it to myself cause all I wanna do is see you smile,
Knowin' that you got someone to talk to ain't that what you want?
I'll be your lover, your provider, and your confidant.
And I won't judge you cause I know that ain't nobody perfect,
But you got some perfect imperfections that makes you worth it.
I wanna see yo body in all the positions that you like it in,
We could do it slow or have some drinks, it gets in enticing when,
You like it rough I give it rough and I start to pull your hair,
Cause ecstasy's your destination and I'ma take you there,
Tell me a secret baby Tell me somethin' that nobody else knows,
And think about it just as soon as the door close.
Tell me a secret baby,
Tell tell tell me a secret baby.
Show me somethin' that nobody else sees.
Tell me all the things you would do if it was you and me,
Tell me a secret baby.
Tell tell tell me a secret baby And there ain't nobody in the universe that competes with you,
Imagine all the possibilities and the freaky things that we could do.
Blind folded,
Handcuffed to the head board never let you go until you scream my name,
Maybe you think I'm playin' but this is really far from a mothafuckin' game.
Ain't a damn thang changed still nasty as I wanna be.
And I got just what you want baby girl you want it,
See it'll turn you on and it's gonna be on as soon as I take it off.
Just give me your body its guaranteed that I'ma
Break you off, off, off, off, off until the sun rise,
And I'm not here to disappoint just give me one try.
One kiss one pinch and you could take it or leave it,
But before you make up your mind just tell me one secret,
Ne-Yo holla at 'em. Tell me somethin' that nobody else knows,
And think about it just as soon as the door close.

Tell me a secret baby,
Tell tell tell me a secret baby.
Show me somethin' that nobody else sees.
Tell me all the things you would do if it was you and me,
Tell me a secret baby.
Tell, tell, tell me a secret baby So we can talk about your fantasies,
And ain't nobody gotta know but me,
Baby come on and make this move if you gonna,
Baby we grown we can do what we wanna,
Said you can tell me what you like to do,
Baby girl you never know I may like it to,
Baby come on and make this move if you gonna,
Baby we grown we can do what we wanna,
Aye. Tell me somethin' that nobody else knows,
And think about it just as soon as the door closes.
Tell me a secret baby,
Tell tell, tell me a secret baby.
Show me somethin' that nobody else sees.
Tell me all the things you would do if it was you and me,
Tell me a secret baby.
Tell, tell, tell me a secret baby Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa
Tell me a secret
Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa
