

Tomorrow Will Be Beautiful

Flo Morrissey

Hm... Hm... Hm...

Now I am building all my treasures and nerves,
Come with me, for we are happy now and can finally shatter...
This moon will lend and keep sending you back again. So glad when...

Things go round in circles as I watch it go too far

No one knows me though,
So tomorrow will be beautiful

Tomorrow will be

Beautiful

Hm... Then we begin again

This new day is my friend

Smile as the sun starts to rise

Tomorrow will renew surprise And no one can tell me

No one can tell me

How do ice

Flow in my eyes

Things go round in circles as I watch it go too far,

No ones my though,

So tomorrow will be beautiful

Tomorrow will be beautiful

Tomorrow will be beautiful

Oh... oh... ah... ah... ah...
