

Wheel in the Morning

Elvis Perkins

Tomorrow may not come, honey your love was never wasted on me I know you like the river darkly you looked right like a stranger to me Who is to utter light to utter darkness who'll meet everyday my shadow in the same place if I know that I'm going home down down by the banks of your bones Honey, you'll be needing those for your liberation the straightening out of the crooked formations and situations I imagine a circle ladder spiraling on from the heart of the matter now take your time and in your own way go Wheel in the morning wheel in the morning, daisy
wheel in the morning
wheel in the morning { Help me in the morning wake up help me out of my old man make up! } Wheel in the morningtime O!
wheel in the morningtime O!
wheel in the morningtime O!
wheel in the morningtime! Wheel in the morning Wheel in the morning { Time/time/time! }
Wheel in the morning
Wheel in the morning! { Time/time/time! } Da da da da da Daisy
Daisy
Daisy
Daisy
Da da da da da
