Appaloosa

Gino Vannelli

Appaloosa, runnin' wild in the dead of the night
Appaloosa, you're the message of love and lightApparitions, they grow wild in the plains of my mind
I get visions of the mountain that I must climbFreedom ain't no illusion, a truth no money can buy
With your sweet absolution, I will follow my star
For the rest of my life, it goes on and onAppaloosa, runnin' high in the heavens above
Appaloosa, you're the angel of God I loveFreedom ain't no deception, truth no man can deny
With your love and direction I will follow my star
For the rest of my life, it goes on and onAppaloosa, Appaloosa
Appaloosa, AppaloosaAppaloosa, runnin' wild in the wake of the dawn
Appaloosa, you're the spirit that turns me onAppaloosa, Appaloosa
Appaloosa, Appaloosa
