The Movieline

train station knows every word you say vacation from all the games you played[chorus] i turn away, long island's calling me i lost it all, my clothes smell like the city leave me for dead, the train will get me home drag me away, i don't know what's good for me i don't know what's good for me every bone in my body breaks for you believe me, cause by now i can barely move[chorus]
i turn away, long island's calling me
