Unglued (Performance Track In Key of G)

Tait

Restless and alone
A weary soul has traveled home
What am I to do
In a world without youI can hardly believe
I turned around and you're gone
All the sweet memories
Of loving you for so longSometimes it's hard
Most times I cry
But God holds this heart of mine
He feels the pain insideBroken and undone
You're were the one we counted on
You taught us how to say
I love youThen you showed us how to pray
I don't want to believe
I turned around and you're gone
All the sweet memoriesOf loving you for so long
Sometimes it's hard
Most times I cry
But God holds this heart of mineAnd He heals the pain I hide
Sometimes it's hard
Most times I cry
But God knows this heart of mineHe feels the pain inside
