

My Favorite Part

Mac Miller

Don't know why thinking of him makes me smile
Said, you just don't know how beautiful you are

And baby that's my favorite part

You walk around so clueless to it all

Like nobody gonna break your heart

It'll be alright babe, see, me, I got you covered

I'm gon' be your lover, you might be the one

If it's only tonight, ayy, we don't need to worry

We ain't in a hurry, rushin' into love
Said, you know I know who you really are, ain't need to lie

Said, the universe couldn't keep us apart

Why would it even try?

Yeah, said, don't let them hurt you ever

I know you far too smart

Before things come together, they have to fall apart

It's been a while since I've been sober

This life can be so hard, I'd rather talk about you
Said, you just don't know how beautiful you are

And baby that's my favorite part

You walk around so clueless to it all

Like nobody gonna break your heart

It'll be alright babe, see, me, I got you covered

I'm gon' be your lover, you might be the one

If it's only tonight, ayy, we don't need to worry

We ain't in a hurry, rushin' into love
If you wanna stay, we're taking it slow baby

'Cause you and me, and I got enough on my mind

But I can make some time for something so divine
Said, you just don't know how beautiful you are

And baby that's my favorite part

You walk around so clueless to it all

Like nobody gonna break your heart

It'll be alright babe, see, me, I got you covered

I'm gon' be your lover, you might be the one

If it's only tonight, ayy, we don't need to worry

We ain't in a hurry, rushin' into love
