

One-Way Track

Corey Cyr

I'm splittin' town mama
Ramblin' on and leavin' home
I'm splittin' town mama
Ramblin' on and leavin' home
And I'll tell ya where I'm goin'
Somewhere out into the vast unknown I stared into the heavens
Walkin' down the railroad track
I stared into the heavens
Walkin' down the railroad track
Thinkin' I don't need no one
Long as the sun is at my back It's been a long, long time
Since I saw my best of friends
It's been a long, long time
Since I saw my best of friends
But I'm bound to make some new ones
On my way to the journey's end I'm in that one-way lane
Can't turn around, no side-to-side
I'm in that one-way lane
Can't turn around, no side-to-side
I'm blind to my surroundings
Might as well crawl up and die
