

All Time Low

Nine Inch Nails

Go, I've heard all I need to know
Your voice in fucking echo stereo
Now this particular scenario
Looks like another all time low
Why did you go and let them in?
See, this is where the fun begins
You barely even pierced the skin
Just wait 'till you see what is comin' in
Get down on the floor
Shut the goddamn door
You don't get out before
You're coming back for more
So give me just a little, baby
Just something to get by
It's gonna last forever, baby
Forget the other side
And we will live forever, baby
And stretch across the sky
I'll follow right behind you, baby
We're never gonna die
Hey, everything is not okay
We lost too much along the way
Our passengers around today
It looks as though they're here to stay
This paranoia turns to fear
There's too much whispering in your ear
Pretending but I know you hear
Just how'd we fucking end up here?
So give me just a little, baby
Just something to get by
It's gonna last forever, baby
Forget the other side
And we will live forever, baby
And stretch across the sky
I'll follow right behind you, baby
We're never gonna die
(We're never gonna die)
How did we get so high?
Stretch across the sky, ooh
Stretch across the sky, ooh ooh
Stretch across the sky, ooh ooh
Stretch across the sky, ooh
Stretch across the sky, ooh
Stretch across the sky, ooh
Stretch across the sky, ooh
