

Sentimental Tune

Tegan And Sara

You in a simple gray coat
In a simple white room
Now you know you know it now and so
Now you know you know it now You hate the tenderhearted torch song
You catch flame to my sentiment, my sentimental tune
Now you know, you know it now and so
Now you know, you know it now Hardhearted, don't worry I'm ready for a fight
Unnerved, the nerve, you're nervous, nervous that I'm right
Hardhearted, don't worry I'm ready for a fight
Unnerved, the nerve, you're nervous, nervous that I'm right Now with your cause and affection on my mind
I won't yield, throw caution into the blaze
Now you know, you know it now and so
Now you know, you know it now Watch with a bit of friction I'll be under your clothes
With a bit of focus I'll be under your skin
Now you know, you know it now and so
Now you know, you know it now Hardhearted, don't worry I'm ready for a fight
Unnerved, the nerve, you're nervous, nervous that I'm right
Hardhearted, don't worry I'm ready for a fight
Unnerved, the nerve, you're nervous, nervous that I'm right Now you know, you know it now and so
Now you know, you know it now
Now you know, you know it now and so
Now you know, you know it now
