Enlighten Me

Nural

So you wanted fame,
Well you got your way
I hope it's everything you've dreamed of'Cause soon enough you'll see Where your style leads,
Costing you those you love to get there
Wherever you are, home isn't farSo don't run, face it
And don't fight, embrace it
Don't you ever lose your faith
'Cause you're always the one to enlighten meSo you want some more
Well go ahead it's yours
I know you love to rob the glory from a God aboveHey get off your phone Mr. Hollywood,
The world is yours now for the takingSo don't run, face it
And don't fight, embrace it
Don't you ever lose your faith
'Cause you're always the one to enlighten me
Yeah, you're always the one to enlighten me, yeah
You're always the one to enlighten meBut how many times will they write rhymes about easy chicks and getting high forever?
If we all sing 'cause misery loves company, soDon't run, face it
And don't fight, embrace it
Don't you ever lose your faith
'Cause you're always the one to enlighten me'Cause you're always the one to enlighten me
Yeah, you're always the one to enlighten me
Yeah, you're always the one to enlighten me
