

Erosion

Gridline

Rain is a bad reminder of everything I don't wanna know
Rain is a backseat driver takes me where I don't wanna go

And it looks like the sky is caving in again

I'm dry and cracked, the sky goes black

And tut, tut, it looks like rain

Erosion

Oh, spirit fall like rain on my thirsty soul

Erosion

Oh, sweet erosion, break me and make me whole

The thirstiest grounds can't take the rain

My undecided vices washing on down the drain

And it looks like the sky is caving in again

My heart is cracked, the sky goes black

And tut, tut, it looks like rain

Erosion

Oh, spirit fall like rain on my thirsty soul

Erosion

Oh, sweet erosion, break me and make me whole

Oh, erosion, would you wash away my sins

Oh, erosion, I need a second shot again

Oh, erosion, would you break my heart again

Oh, erosion, I am a broken hearted man, yeah, yeah

Erosion

Oh, spirit fall like rain on my thirsty soul

Oh, erosion

Oh, sweet erosion, break me and make me whole

Erosion

Oh, spirit fall like rain on my thirsty soul

Erosion

Oh, sweet erosion, break me and make me whole
