

To Be Loved By You

Rebekka Karijord

On the first day of the year I cant help but wonder why weve been apart so much last year when it feels so good having you hereI am a fool when it comes to expressing my love for you and I know Ive showed you in all ways how doubtful Ive been these daysBut when all the birds gather on the factory roof across the river outside our window the sky turns orange cause darkness is loosening its grip over Stockholm I think of how thankful I amTo be loved by you to be loved by you to be loved by someone like you
