

Blur

Adelitas Way

She must need somewhere to stay tonight
She's not right, all alone
She must need somewhere to play tonight
She's so tired, I should know She's so reckless, common senseless
And she feeds like a leech
She sold more records
And her best friend's always bitching at me (Oh) She must need something from me tonight
In the blink of an eye She's a blur (blur) (blur) (blur)
I'm only happy when she's leaving
I'll tell myself I live and learn
She's a blur (blur) (blur) (blur)
Call me crazy I believed her
She said "I'm not like the other girls" She's a blur She must need someone that's weak tonight
That's alright, moving on
She's a distant memory of life
I'll get by on my own She got arrested when it ended
Now she's bitter and beat
And her sentence is she never got the better of me (Oh) She must need somewhere to sleep tonight
In the blink of an eye She's a blur (blur) (blur) (blur)
I'm only happy when she's leaving
I'll tell myself I live and learn
Blur (blur) (blur) (blur)
Call me crazy I believed her
She said "I'm not like the other girls"
She said she's just as other girls
I think she's right, I think she's worse
I can't describe, there are no words
I can't describe 'cause she's a blur She's a blur (blur) (blur) (blur)
I'm only happy when she's leaving
I'll tell myself I live and learn
Blur (blur) (blur) (blur)
Call me crazy I believed her
She said "I'm not like the other girls"
She said she's just as other girls
I think she's right, I think she's worse
I can't describe, there are no words
I can't describe 'cause she's a blur
