

Beautiful Apocalypse (Instrumental)

Kamelot

Gravity is pulling me
I don't really want to be
A child of desolation anymore
(My) Inner world is quaking
So tired of my trivial self
A paradise corrupted to the core
I'm standing on the edge...Something old and
Something new
Something borrowed
Something blueIt's time for us to celebrate our beautiful apocalypseAlways know that you are not alone
Take my hand
My gutterchild adventure
You are not alone
I'll take you where the lovers go to sleep
My borderline affection
Don't be afraid
You're not aloneTumbling in the multitude
On our way to new horizons
Drowning in a mass of refugees
Liberation in demise
Revolution in disguise
Failing to survive these battlefields
We're standing on the edgeSomething old and
Something new
Something borrowed
Something blueIt's time for us to celebrate our beautiful apocalypseAlways know that you are not alone
Take my hand
My gutterchild adventure
You are not alone
I'll take you where the lovers go to sleep
My boarderline affection
Don't be afraid
You're not aloneYou're not alone
My gutterchild adventure
You are not alone
I'll take you where the lovers to go sleep
My borderline affectionCause you are not aloneTake my hand
My gutterchild adventure
I'll take you to a place where lovers leap

Now close your eyes, don't be afraid
You're not alone
