No Doubt

House Of Pain

No doubt
Hold tight
Till the break of dawn
Till the break of light
No doubt
Hold tight
Till the break of dawn
Till the break of light
Say yes, yes y'all to the right beat
Get up everybody's 'bout to leave their feet
Get down everybody's 'bout to lose their seat
I be huntin' down crews like Pacino in heat
Puttin' psychology in your biology
No Scientology, dianedic anistedic
You took bad advise, kid, I'm mad precise
When it's time to get nice I heat it up like Spice
No doubt
Hold tight
Till the break of dawn
Till the break of light
No doubt
Hold tight
Till the break of dawn
Till the break of light
C'mon let's be real you only think you can deal
'Cause when I'm holdin' the steel, I rock shit that make you feel like Damn that look easy, maybe I could do it
So you take a phat beat and put your wack rhymes to it
And God only knows
What could make you peruse it
For those that can't dance
Just clap your hands to it
No doubt
Hold tight
Till the break of dawn
Till the break of light
You tell me you the baddest and you get the most cream
But tell me what's the status on your self esteem
You frontin' on your jewels and your Benz and your Lex

All the bodies that you caught and all the females you sexed
Yes, yes y'all, true indeed
The sight of the world keeps me high on weed
Makes my eyeballs bleed but I must proceed
Yo that chic's good lookin' but she's hooked on speed
Buy a first row ticket
Watch the vultures feed
Get you culture free
From the lust and greed
No doubt
Hold tight
No doubt
Hold tight
