I Am Yours

Jason Morant

What is this place I found
The sacred ground
Where You and I will run
All that I'd never leave from hereWith every second spent
The world around me
Seems to fall away
And with it all concerns and fearsSo I'm thanking You now
For showing me how to love You
For showing me how to find myself in You
Here's my song
And I am Yours
And I am YoursWhat is this place I found
That brings to life
The deepest parts of me
Yeah, this is grace that pulls me throughWith every glance from You
That come my way
I'm feeling more alive
So I'm gonna keep my eyes on YouYeah, I'm thanking You now
For showing me how to love You
For showing me how to lose myself in You
Here's my song
And I am Yours
And I am YoursI'm telling You, telling You
That I am Yours
And I am YoursYeah, I'm thanking You now
For showing me how to love You
For showing me how to lose myself in You
Here's my song
And I am Yours
And I am YoursAnd I am Yours
I'm telling You, telling You
That I am Yours
You're showing me, showing me
That I yeah, am Yours
And I am Yours
