Inspiration On Demand

Shadows Fall

Where has it gone?

Have all of the words escaped?

Inspiration on demand

Emotions all displacedAnd I will wander endlessly

Seeking all the answers that I let slip through my fingers

And I will wander endlessly

Seeking all the answers that I let slip and fall away

Turn it all around

It melts into sound

Unfolding, ever growingTorn from my rest

Though I still fight to stay

The images dissolve

As the day invadesAnd I will wander endlessly

Seeking all the answers that I let slip through my fingers

And I will wander endlessly

Seeking all the answers that I let slip and fall away

A second to react

The mind too slow to act

Unfolding, ever growing

What possesed us to go

First sequence three's burn here

Unfolding, ever growingDrown the voices of restraint

Make them choke in silenceIncinerate the ropes

And embrace the hope

Unfolding, ever growing

Splintering the doors

Free the mind to soar

Unfolding, ever growing

Turn it all around

It melts into soundDrown the voices of restraint

Make them choke to silence
