

Lighthouse

Ziggy Marley

Hey Sister
The emotions I've gone through
And the part of me is missing
Where the rivers used to flowHey Mother
I know you must be sad
To see that things are happening
I'll fix it if I canI'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightI'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightHey Brother
Some things never change
Caesar's always Caesar
the night comes into dayHey Father
They sold you like a slave
To a world that takes everything and gives nothing awayHey....I'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightYeah...
I'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightI'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightI'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightI'm holding up the fire
Lighting up the sky
Like a lighthouse on the ocean
I'll bring you home alrightI'll bring you home...I'm holding up the fire...Oh... one love.
