The Love In Me

Lisa Stansfield

I ain't puttin' you in no cage
I ain't puttin' no chains on you, baby
The love in meIf you believe in love
Then you'll believe in me
'Cause I'm everythin' you want
And baby, I'm everything you needI know where you're coming from
'Cause I'm a woman
I'm freer than the breeze
And fresher than the air that you breathOoh, your heart is breakin'
Ooh, when it's tired and achin' for love
I'll give you moreIt's the love in me, has to be, all that you need
A love that's less, can't possess
All that I have to set you free
The love in meYou'll always be free to come and go as you please
'Cause baby I know you'll always want to come back to me
Behind every good man, there lies a woman
And incidentally, I'm the woman you needOoh, your heart is breakin'
Ooh, when it's tired and achin' for love
I'll give you moreIt's the love in me, has to be, all that you need
A love that's less, can't possess
All that I have to set you freeThe love in me, has to be, all that you need
A love that's less, can't possess
All that I have to set you free
The love in me
The love in meI ain't puttin' you in no cage
I ain't puttin' no chains on youOoh, when your heart is breakin'
Ooh, when it's tired and achin' for love
I'll give you moreDarlin', It's the love in me, has to be, all that you need
A love that less, can't possess
All that I have to set you free
The love in meThe love in me, has to be, all that you need
A love that less, can't possess
All that I have, all that I have in meOh, I am not foolin' baby
It's the love in me
I'm in love
