Someday by Tommy Vixon

Verse:
I could run away
wonderin why I couldn't stay
I could run away
But I know I'll pay

Chorus:
Someday...
I could run away...
Someday...
Take my guns and end the day
Someday...
I could run away...

Verse:
Why do I have to live this way no no
I'm so tired of all this pain
Try to cover up everything
With you lies and excuses

Chorus:
Someday...
I could run away
Someday...
Take my guns and end the day
Someday
I could run away

Post Chorus:
There's nowhere to run, there no where to hide
I guess I'm just gonna have to stand and fight
There's nowhere to run, there no where to hide
I guess I'm just gonna have to stand and fight

Bridge:
Someday, I'll fall in love again
Someday, we can make amends
Someday, fall in love again

Someday, Someday

Chorus:
Someday...
I could run away...
Someday...
Take my guns and end the day
Someday...
I could run away...yeah...
