I'm Your Daddy

Weezer

I thought tonight would suck like every other night
I'd party with my friends
But when I saw you grooving on the dance floor
Normal came to an endWe started talking and man, it was so clear to me
There's no one else like you
You got the brains, the body and the beauty
To top it off you're coolThis ain't impossible
This ain't improbable
You are my baby tonight
And I'm your daddyThis ain't believable
This ain't predictable
You are my baby tonight
And I'm your daddyI hope that I ain't freaking you out
You probably hear it all the time
I swear I ain't like those other boys
I'm a special kindI would like to give a demonstration
Of what it is I do
I'll take you out to dinner at Palermo's
Spinach cheese fondueThis ain't impossible
This ain't improbable
You are my baby tonight
And I'm your daddyThis ain't believable
This ain't predictable
You are my baby tonight
And I'm your daddyI will egg the goomba if you tire
Try my best to moonwalk on the wire
I just want to ooh, ah, feel your fire
Feel your fire, feel your fireThis ain't impossible
This ain't improbable
You are my baby tonight
And I'm your daddyThis ain't believable
This ain't predictable
You are my baby tonight
And I'm your daddy
