Happy Now?

No Doubt

You had the best, but you gave her up
'Cause dependency might interrupt
Idealistic will so hard to please
Put your indecisive mind at ease
You broke the set now there's
There's only singles
There's no looking back
And this time I mean it
Are you happy now?
Well, tell me how
You're happy now?
Are you happy?
The uncertainty you had of me
Brought clouded, shady company
The tenderness habitual
A seldom-fading ritual
You killed the pair
Now only one is breathing
There's no looking back
This time I mean it
Are you happy now?
Well, tell me how
You're happy now?
Are you happy?
Are you happy now?
How is it now?
Are you happy now?
Are you happy?
No more leaning on your shoulder
I won't be there, no more bother
If you feel you just might want me
That's too bad, I'm not that easy
The contemplator all those years
Now you must adhere
To your new career of liberation
You've been cast all by yourself
You're free at last
You broke the set now there's
There's only singles

There's no looking back
This time I mean it
Are you happy now?
Tell me how
You're happy now?
Are you happy?
Are you happy now?
How is it now?
Are you happy now?
Are you happy?
Oh, you're by yourself
All by yourself
You got no one else
You're by yourself
All by yourself
All by yourself
All by yourself
All by yourself
No one else
No one else
By yourself
By yourself
