Paradise Lost

In this autumn rain
We're blessed with autumn skies, autumn skiesI'm doing it for myself, not somebody else
I'm doing it for myselfCalling out in shame, silence ingrained
Crying out your name
Something wrong but beautiful, so beautifulIn this awesome rage
Rejecting compromise, compromiseUndoing it for myself, not somebody else
Undoing it for myselfCalling out in shame, silence ingrained
Crying out your name
Something wrong but beautiful, so beautifulLike the dead, fade away
Life, a debt, fade away
Like the dead, like the deadCalling out in shame, silence ingrained
Crying out your name
Something wrong but beautiful, so beautiful
Calling out in shame, silence ingrained
