

Worth It All

Disciple

Hey, its worth it all
If I can just see You, feel You
Hey, its worth it all
If theres just one that sees You, feels You
I know it will be worth it allAll the time its taken
To be here in this place
The scars have left their mark
But Im still runningForgetting what is behind, Im moving straight ahead
And I will run with a passion till I reach the end
I wont let my eyes move left to right
Ill run with all my heart, Ill give it all I gotHey, its worth it all
If I can just see You, feel You
Hey, its worth it all
If theres just one that sees You, feels YouRemembering all those voices
Arrows that cut me down
Theres something burning in me
Keeps me runningForgetting what is behind, Im moving straight ahead
And I will run with a passion till I reach the end
I wont let my eyes move left to right
Ill run with all my heart, Ill give it all I gotHey, its worth it all
If I can just see You, feel You
Hey, its worth it all
If theres just one that sees You, feels You
I know it will be worth it allI know it will be worth it all
I know it will be worth it all
I know it will be worth it allI wont let my eyes move left to right
Ill run with all my heart, Ill give it all I gotHey, its worth it all
If I can just see You, feel You
Hey, its worth it all
If theres just one that sees You, feels You
I know it will be worth it all(Forgetting what is behind, Im moving straight ahead)
(And I will run with a passion till I reach the end)
(I wont let my eyes move left to right)
I know it will be worth it all
(Ill run with all my heart, Ill give it all I got)(I wont let my eyes move left to right)
(Ill run with all my heart, Ill give it all I got)
I know it will be worth it all
