Archetype

It's only but a ...
Baby, yeahI heard a thing or two about love, love
I heard it's something like a bad girl, girl
They say it will leave you stuck in a ... so hard, for many women comes around
Everybody wants someone, one, but nobody wanna let down,
Let down it ain't good, cause nobody wants to fall, and be left alone on the groundI'm ready, I'm ready to lay down my heart, if you let me, promise you won't regret it
Say you love me now until the end
Girl it's only forever
Our lives belongs together, our spirit from the mountain tops
Tell the world that you're my heart, forever
I'm not asking for too much, it's only forever
It's only foreverI heard a thing or two about love, love
When she find you can get enough
I could really say that you I can;t live without
Your hand fits mine like a glove, glove
I could hold the mornings waking up and kiss it in the night when the sun comes down, yeahI'm ready, I'm ready to lay down my heart, if you let me, promise you won't regret it
Say you love me now until the end
Girl it's only forever
Our live belongs together, our spirit from the mountain tops
Tell the world that you're my heart, forever
I'm not asking for too much, it's only forever
It's only foreverForever in the days and the clocks would go away,
I would settle for whatever time you give me
As long as you're with me, I'll never go too far away, yeah
I will be just fine if you gave me eternity, oh yeah
Only forever, it only for, it's only for, it's only forever
It's only forever, it's only for, it's only for, it's only forever
Forever, girl it's only forever, baby yeah
Our lives belongs together, our spirit from the mountain tops
Tell the world that you're my heart, forever
I'm not asking for too much, it's only forever
It's only forever.
