

Lookin' Through The Windows

Jackson 5

Lookin' through the window
Lookin' through the window
Lookin' through the window
Look, look, look through the window
Lookin' through the window Lookin' through the windows
The window to your heart, oh baby, yeah
I can see it's cloudy
The rain's about to start Lookin' through the windows
It seems I caused your fears, yeah, yeah, yeah
And that little doubt girl
And now it's bringing tears Remember, just remember whatever makes you feel that way
Don't you worry 'cause I'm gonna stay right by your side
To keep on lookin' through the windows
Lookin' in your eyes Lookin', lookin' in your eyes
Lookin', lookin' in your eyes Lookin' through the windows
Seems like the only way, yeah
I can know your feelings
If you still love me today Remember, just remember whatever makes you feel that way
Don't you worry 'cause I'm gonna stay right by your side
To keep on lookin' through the windows
Lookin' in your eyes Lookin', lookin' in your eyes
Lookin', lookin' in your eyes Lookin' through the windows
The window to your heart
Lookin' through the windows
The window to your heart Oh baby
