Be Somebody

Zack Knight

I'm tired of tryna prove myself to everybody they don't know what I go through in time you'll see that I'm just not anybody I'll change the world for me and you cause my mama told me
you can do anything if you put your mind into it keep trying cause you'll get there in the end try to avoid the easy option when you're chasing fame and fortune that's the only reason why.I'll never lose hope, I'll just keep on going cause every single night is mine for the taking so everybody out there put your fist up in the air hold your head up and repeat after meI'm gonna be somebody, be somebody be somebody tonight (2x)Why can't people just be happy for each other?
Instead of tryna put each other down cause even when success is just round the corner my feet will always stay on the ground cause my mama told me
hold your head up and repeat after meI'm gonna be somebody, be somebody
be somebody tonight
(2x)I've dreamt of this moment ever since I was young said I wouldn't make it but look what I've become no valley too deep no mountain too high nothing can break me it's my time to shine yeah, it's my time to shine, to shineI'll never lose hope, I'll just keep on going cause every single night is mine for the taking

(4x)
