

Into the Unknown

Bass Junkie

Heading for another life in a new world far away
Why not me, oh, Lord?
Why did Vandroiy have to die, why?
Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on
Walking down a misty road into the unknown
Heavy winds may blow into our faces
Oh, you can't kill the dream in killing the dreamer
Can't tear it down, someone carry on
Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on
Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on
Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on
Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on
