

Screaming

brackenvine

1, 2, 3, 4! Yeah! At the edge of us
I'm holding on
I've lost your trust
But I'm still trying I've changed in many ways
I can't explain
I've lost my touch
And I'm not lying Screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone And I'm waiting for a time like Yeah, for a time like this
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong You've got a grip on me
I cannot take it by mistake
And you're the coward My tongues become a gun
You've tortured me
I'm out of luck
And you're the trigger Screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone And I'm waiting for a time like
Yeah for a time like this
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong What goes on behind those eyes of yours
I'll never know but I've been told
When this all comes crashing down on us
I'll be here to sort us out
To sort us out, out And I'm screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone And I'm waiting for a time like
Yeah, for a time like this
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong Screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone And I'm waiting for a time like
to prove you wrong
to prove you wrong
to prove you wrong
to prove you wrong
