Message (Rise Up Again)

Tom Cochrane

The message is faint but it's coming in clear
Meet by the lake far away from here
The place we'd meet, way back when
Hearts as oneCan you show me how it feels again
Where the moon rises up again
Shining down on your hot white skin
And you know it, can you reach itFeeling good like we just don't care
Feeling fine with the moon in your hair
Moon's up down on outlet beach
Some thing's wild, wild, wild and there's nothing we can't reachRise up, rise up again
Rise up, rise up again
Come onRise up, rise up again
Like a bird with it's wing that's on the mend
I see you like I did back then
So bloody proud with your hands not shakingRage against the falling light
The desire is strong and the love is right
And you know it, and you reach it
And you know it, and you reach itThe music's up, the music's loud
A hot night's calling and we're feeling proud
Moon's up down on outlet beach
Some thing's wild wild wild and there's nothing we can't reachRise up, rise up again
Rise up, rise up again
Come onFeeling good, feeling fair
Feeling fine like we just don't care
And the music's up, the music's loud
A hot night's calling and we're feeling proudFeeling good like we just don't care
Feeling fine with the moon in your hair
Moon's up down on outlet beach
Some thing's wild, wild, wild and there's nothing we can't reach
