

These Four Walls

Little Mix

I feel so numb
Staring at the shower wall
It's begun,
The feeling that the end has come
And now the water's cold I tried to eat today
But the lump in my throat got in the way In this time I've lost all sense of pride
I've called a hundred times
If I hear your voice I'll be fine And I, I can't come alive
I want the room to take me under
'Cause I can't help but wonder
What if I had one more night for goodbye?
If you're not here to turn the lights off, I can't sleep
These four walls and me I lay in bed
Can't seem to leave your side
Your pillow's wet
From all these tears I've cried
I won't say goodbye I tried to smile today
Then I realized there's no point anyway In this time I've lost all sense of pride
I've called a thousand times
If I hear your voice I'll be fine And I, I can't come alive
I want the room to take me under
'Cause I can't help but wonder
What if I had one more night for goodbye?
If you're not here to turn the lights off I can't sleep
These four walls and me Oh oh oh And I, I can't come alive
I want the room to take me under
'Cause I can't help but wonder
What if I had one more night for goodbye?
If you're not here to turn the lights off I can't sleep
These four walls and me
