Laid Down

Stampead

i used to sleep on my back when life was better I used to dream in the morning let my blood run wild at night but I canâ€™t pass the thought of you or a moment of silence and Iâ€™ve lost the urge to enjoy my life and I blame it all on you since I watched you lay down

one last time
I watched you lay down

whoâ€™s to care if youâ€™re crying whoâ€™s to care if youâ€™re not Iâ€™ll make the most of my time Itâ€™s the one thing Iâ€™ve got and itâ€™s easy to please the Gods itâ€™s easy to find love but itâ€™s over now and I say to my friends in this long life

one last time
and I screamed for seven miles as I held it all inside
