

See You Fall

How to Dress Well

Just another afternoon and i'm choking down tea for two when you've flown so far away, and you know im waiting when the consequence of rage comes crashing through the living room floor when i thought id found a life, seems ive been mistaken so i'll take the paid holiday, but i just cant set foot on the plane well your voice gets in the way, guess i'll drive cross country [Chorus x 2] i see you fall i see you fall, i've never seen you look so beautiful well my suits been pressed and cleaned and i've never seen you people before well we'll wander through the town and we'll sing our sad songs as i lower you into the ground and you've never seen these people before with the bullets falling all around and they sing their sad songs [Chorus x 2] i see you fall i see you fall, i've never seen you look so beautiful i just keep moving, i see you watching i see you waving from the window and i think im falling just keep driving there is nothing to forgive now [Chorus x 2]

and i see you fall i see you fall
hold on, hold on, hold on.....
