

Midnight Madness

Rock & Lace

Headlights on traffic while I'm on the phone
Midnight madness tryin to make my way back home
Man in the right lanes givin me the finger
Thought I couldn't see and id let it linger
I start yelling coz he's bein a stupid prick
Boyfriends on the line also bein a dick
Think I'm goin mad in the middle of the road
Pull myself together just to rid the load I'm gonna drive on this road and i don't know where I'm going
I'm gonna drive on the road and i don't know where it's going
I'm gonna drive on this road and i don't know where I'm going
I'm gonna drive, drive, drive Wasted so much time trying to explain
Wasted driving in the wrong lane
Should have turned left when I knew I had the chance
Life's short when you're busy making plans
Always been the bitch never satisfied
Some things never change now i know the reason why
I'm the one to blame for pretending i don't see Somewhere on this road there's an exit sign for me I'm gonna drive on this road and i don't know where I'm going
I'm gonna drive on the road and i don't know where it's going
I'm gonna drive on this road and i don't know where I'm going
I'm gonna drive, drive, drive
