Lonely

After Forever

What would happen if I go?
Just leave without any reason why?
Would someone wonder why? would someone miss me?What would happen if I couldn't take it?
Just break without any signs up front
Would someone pick it up?
Would someone help me out?'Cause life ain't easy for me
Ain't easy alone
This is my path, it's lonelyWhat would happen if I change?
Just wake up one day not quite the same
Would someone wonder why? would someone know how I was before?
Would they like me better knowing I am not the one I was
What would happen if I lie?'Cause life ain't easy for me
Ain't easy alone
This is my path, it's lonely
