

Song For Luna

As Tall As Lions

Summer
It's been three years since I last saw that lonely smile.
Bound to be a thousand more
'till I can find.
A face I long as much as yours Mi hermosa.
Oh ohh Never would have thought you'd catch my eye across the room Broken English, a goodbye that came too soon.
Who needs words.
When you reply con su cuerpo? I've been stuck on you foreign eyes.
They have struck for better
We put our lives on our shoulders, but these arms are too weak to hold us. Dreaming 'bout some drunken melody you sung before.
Verses beautiful and strange,
I love that song.
I am strong beneath the fold of all that flies. Chorus (x2) Haven't found all that I'm looking for.
Lost your ghost somewhere in Samana
I run my finger across windows to trace all the outlines that make up your face Haven't found all that I'm looking for.
Lost your ghost somewhere in Samana
Try and try there's no use to pretend, all i want is to see you again. Sing into the moonlight Who could ask for more?
