

Down South

Keegan Smith

I can live on my own, I can do this all alone,
I need no help

---

everything is all right.

I reflect day to day, on the things that I say,
and I know that Iâ€™ve hurt you, but thatâ€™s okay.

Mesmerized by religion, I make my decision,
I break the rules

---

ooh it feels so good.

My heart and soul are crying out, so I shut their mouths and say,
â€œWhoâ€™s in charge now!â€•

Down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, downâ€¦Iâ€™m falling down.

Candy is sweet, money is nice, I love to look at a pretty girl twice. You make the rules, I change them, you set them up and I break them down, so listen to the sound I saidâ€¦

Heart Break Ridge, whoâ€™s crying now, yes I can hear you, you are so loud. The road I travel is soft easy and clear, it feels so goodâ€¦

Break me off something proper, Iâ€™ve got what you need, Iâ€™ll give you anything you want or see. I may seem sca but Iâ€™ll be your huckleberry, and all you have to do is put your faith in meâ€¦

Oh dear God, please help me I want to come home,

I donâ€™t like this road that Iâ€™m traveling on.

Iâ€™ve come to my senses; Iâ€™ve lost all my chances,
so please take me homeâ€¦

---

Lyrics submitted by kelsey.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>