You're Not the 1

Groove Theory

I had given up on you 'cause you had make it clear
You couldn't give a damn whether I was far or I was near
But you heard I got a man and suddenly you're here
The challenge it must turn you on, 'cause I know you ain't sincereWhat we had is over, even though I thought we'd last
But somehow you just think that you can hold on to the past
You hate it that I'm doin' fine without you in my life
But I bet you never guessed that I'd be someone else's wifeYou deceived me, thought you'd love me then you'd leave me
Played your games, yeah, you had your fun
Boy, believe me if you think I still need you
Boy, you're wrong 'cause you're not the oneLately in the middle of the night you decide to call
Tellin' me you want me back and that I am your all
Ever since we parted those three letter words you refused to say
Are said to me so sweetly almost every single dayThere's no use in lying 'cause I really love my man
There's no use in trying 'cause I can see right through your plan
It's time that you move on and make a brand new start
But I wouldn't be surprised if next time someone breaks your heartYou deceived me, thought you'd love me then you'd leave me
Played your games, yeah, you had your fun
Boy believe me if you think I still need you
Boy, you're wrong 'cause you're not the oneThere's no use in lying 'cause I really love my man
There's no use in trying, I can see right through your plan
It's time that you move on and make a brand new start
But I wouldn't be surprised if next time someone breaks your heartYou deceived me, thought you'd love me then you'd leave me
Played your games, yeah, you had your fun
Boy, believe me if you think I still need you
Boy, you're wrong 'cause you're not the oneYou deceived me, thought you'd love me then you'd leave me
Played your games, yeah, you had your fun
Boy, believe me if you think I still need you
Boy, you're wrong 'cause you're not the oneYou deceived me, thought you'd love me then you'd leave me
Played your games, yeah, you had your fun
Boy, believe me if you think I still need you
Boy, you're wrong 'cause you're not the oneYou, deceived me, thought you'd love me then you'd leave me
Played your games, yeah, you had your fun
Boy, believe me if you think I still need you
