

Send Me to the Moon

The Mollies

It's difficult to do
This being far away from you
Across these miles
I'm the loneliest color blue

Well what can be done?
Is my heart too far to touch?
I know you love me
But I'm not quite sure how much

Oh, look, it's the postman
He lights up my face
When you send me your love
Life's the most beautiful place

I open the postbox
Jump up with a shout
When you send me your love, baby
It paints the whole house

By satellite, rocket ship
Air waves, sound clips
Walk, run, switchboard
SOS, Morse code

How's it going, baby?
Can you give me just a clue?
If you'd send me your love
It'd send me to the moon

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Ooooh

You ask, "But what have I got to give you?
What have I got to share?
How can I ever show you
That I truly, sincerely care?"

Tell me, what can be done?

Is my heart too far to touch?
I know you love me
But I'd like to know how much

I don't mind it tattered
I don't mind it torn
Keep it coming baby
Or I'll be forever forlorn

I'll take it all ripped up
I'll take it smudged and wet
Go on, send me your love
I want as much as I can get

Be it by boat, set sail
Or a greeting in the mail
I open it up
And smile without fail

Oh, fill up my postbox
There's always more room
I'm up in a space shuttle
On my way to the moon

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Ooooh

Yes, it's difficult to do
This being far away from you
Across these miles
I am waiting in shades of blue

Tell me, what can be done?
Is my heart too far to touch?
I know you love me
But can you show me how much?

By satellite, rocket ship
Air waves, sound clips
Walk, run, switchboard
SOS, Morse code

How's it going, baby?
Can you give me just a clue?
If you'd send me your love

It'd send me to the moon

Oh, oh

Oh, oh

Ooooh

Oh, by satellite, rocket ship

Air waves, sound clips

Walk, run, switchboard

SOS, Morse code

How's it going, baby?

Can you give me just a clue?

If you'd send me your love

It'd send me to the moon

Oh, oh

Oh, oh

Ooooh

Oh, won't you send your love my way?

Oh, won't you send your love my way?
