Sunrise

Angel City

Sunrise, sunrise, sunriseTalk to me, what are you doing? What are you thinking right now?
Set me free, Im just a prisoner to you and time goes by Im still waiting forever and a day boy, I thought I saw you yesterday
I thought those words I heard you sayWhen I look at the sunrise, sunlight nothing feels awake
When you're living this feeling, dont ever let me go
When I look at the starlight it feels right
Your body's on my mind, I'll set you free, I'll set you freeLook at me, what are you thinking? Tell me
What you're seeing, let me go if theres nothing
You believe and time goes by, Im still waiting forever
And a day boy, I thought I saw you yesterday
