

Vessel

ZolaJesus

So close your eyes and take a deep breath
They are listening
Open your mouth and throw out everything you have to say
You know you're not alone
We'll all be close to you
And godforsaken places will see the sunlight in your eyes
We'll be your voice
They're an unsinkable vessel, but we are the ocean
We will be your voice, we will be your voice
They are a vessel, but we are the ocean
Everyday is so precious, everyday is so precious

Don't let the silence fill the room, so please shout the truth
We just want a better world, where everyone knows how to love
And love is our only weapon, our only weapon
We'll be your voice, we'll be your voice
We will be your voice
We are the messengers
We'll be your voice, we'll be your voice
We will be your voice
We are the messengers
They are an unsinkable vessel, they are an unsinkable vessel
