

Last of the Mermaids

Mortimer Nova

dance for me one last time in the morning i have to go you cant wait up all night while i watch the snow
wailing beauty
lost beneath me
trails are melting
i still can't see last i kissed you
and you never know
how i've missed you
feelings never show are there things i've forgotten did you ever really know was i too inhibited
has the morning let me go perfect angel
miles from me
come up to my homesick city last i kissed you
and you never know
how i've missed you
feelings never show
