Melvins/Fantomas Big Band

It's your last chance to find yourself in consequence
It's so hard to find a simple reason
Maybe I'll find myself with evidence
Hate breeds with nothing to believe in Another day, another day in paradise
If you only knew wouldn't it be nice
Get away, get away, get away
I'm about to detonateEverything to prove
Nothing to lose
Just when everything has fallen
To the ground
Gonna knock it down
Just believe me when I tell you it's alrightThis time we're on our way to tragedy
Forever bored and outside from the in crowd
I've come to grips confronting my reality
Numb struck it's me against the world now
For all you know for all you know it's not for real
Spare me the obsession that you deal
Get away get away get away
I'm about to detonateEverything to prove
Nothing to lose
Just when everything has fallen
To the ground
Gonna knock it down
Just believe me when I tell you it's alrightEverything to prove
Nothing to lose
Just when everything has fallen
To the ground
Gonna knock it down
Just believe me when I tell you it's alrightI should've know right from the start
You'd take this trust and rip me apart
Could be a change of heartI fall into you, but don't believe that this is real
I fall into you, but don't believe that this is real
I fall into you, but don't believe that this is real
I fall into you, but don't believe that this is real
