Rain

The Butterfly Effect

Restless
Did we fail to start?
Arrested
I've got a broken heart
Broken heart
With my eyes wide open
Take me back to the start
With my eyes wide open
I will lay me down in your arms
Let is it rain down on me
Take me far away from here

And we'll suffer together
In your arms I'll lay me down
Fall into you
Reckless
Slowly tested
Can't mend your broken heart
With my eyes wide open
Lay me down in your arms
Suffer forever with me now
